This newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to spread the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, thru widely distributed advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no institution has ever been able to provide. —Col. R. R. McCormick.

The Star's Platform

- CITY
Apply the revenues of the municipal power plant to develop the industrial and social resources of Hope.
Move city government in 1930, and improved sanitary conditions in the alleys and business back-ways.
Support the Chamber of Commerce.
- COUNTY
A county highway program providing for the construction of a network of all-weather road each year, to gradually reduce the dirt road problem.
Political and economic support for every scientific agricultural program which offers practical benefits to Hempstead county's greatest industry.
Encourage farmer organizations, believing that co-operative effort is essential in the country as it is in town.
- STATE
Continued progress on the state highway program.
Simplify tax reform, and a more efficient government through the better system of expenditures.
Free Arkansas from the cattle tick.

The College Presents Its Bill

In a statement in yesterday's Star the Third District A. & M. college at Magnolia indicated that it would ask the legislature next month for $200,000 worth of buildings and repairs. President C. A. Overstreet said the college actually needed $400,000, and this recital of facts seemed to prove it.
And yet, when you recall that our district college is but one of four semi-local institutions throughout the state, it appears that the legislature will be asked for a total construction bill of $800,000.

That is nearly a million dollars.
Most taxpayers will probably agree with Lieutenant-Governor Fleet Wilson, who told the Rotary club here a week ago that he would help the A. & M. colleges if they could be helped out of present taxes—but not otherwise.

Yet the responsibility for these colleges—four of them, where most states have but one—lies squarely on the people of Arkansas. The history of Magnolia A. & M. shows that the original cost to the state was but $40,000, appropriated in 1899. At that time the people of Magnolia and Columbia county gave much more—390 acres of farmland and $50,000 in cash. That was the end of local support. The operating costs have been borne by the state—and today we are presented with an accumulated depreciation bill amounting to $200,- 000.

The bill is fair and just. It ought to be paid. But it probably won't be.

The Star suggests to the next legislature that steps be taken to cut out one of the two divisions of training provided for in the A. & M. schools, so that the facilities of each school may be concentrated as much as possible. At present they provide for both high school and junior college training. But with the growth of the consolidated rural high schools in this and other sections, the need for the high school division is being eliminated. The work of the A. & M. schools should be whittled down to the junior college only.

It is by no means a bad record that the Magnolia school has shown over the past ten years, but the fact remains that wherever possible the state must hedge on its property investment in so many tax-supported schools scattered at such great distances. The A. & M. colleges should be asked to convert their properties exclusively to junior college work and use their present facilities to the utmost after being relieved of the high school grades.

Hot Springs For Hospital

CONCERTED effort is being made by residents of every section of Arkansas, says the Camden News; to have Hot Springs—"The City of Healing Waters"—selected as the site for the great new veterans' hospital that is to be established and maintained somewhere in the South by the federal government.

No other community is equipped with the natural advantages possessed by Hot Springs, these advantages having been recognized many years ago by this same federal government, when the section was set aside as a government reservation and when the Army and Navy hospital was established there. Further indication of the great value of these resources is seen by every visitor to Hot Springs, in that the federal government continues to maintain ironclad supervision over the use of the springs and the waters that have made Hot Springs famous the world over.

Hot Springs possesses also countless national and man-made advantages. Climatic conditions are ideal—never too hot, never too cold, equable temperature and virtually ideal "mountain air." Nor is Hot Springs difficult to reach, by railroad or automobile or airplane. It is excellently located from a transportation viewpoint. And although it has long been recognized as one of the world's greatest health resorts, it does not like other health resorts, continually flaunt that fact to the world, by the continuous presence of the sick and lame and the halt upon its streets and thoroughfares.

Hot Springs is a modern city, a city of fine, Christian, up-standing men and women—and no city has a better claim to be chosen as the site for such a hospital as the government plans to establish and maintain.

Quick On the Trigger

ORDINARILY, people have ready praise for a policeman who is quick on the trigger. Whenever a policeman kills a hold-up man he is singled out for special praise. Usually he gets promoted. Newspapers exhort the force to treat 'em tough and keep the good work moving.

But being quick on the trigger has its disadvantages.
In a big middle-western city the other day a detective was trailing a certain gunman. He saw on the street a man he believed to be his quarry. So he walked up behind him, stuck a gun in the man's back, and said, "I am a policeman—stick 'em up!"

The man whirled about, his hands in his pockets; and the policeman, being quick on the trigger, shot him. The man died instantly. And then it was discovered that he was not the fugitive gunman. He was a perfectly innocent and law-abiding citizen.

These treat 'em rough campaigns usually end in tragedies like that. It does not always pay to shoot first and ask questions later. —Paragould Daily Press.

Will There Be "Room at the Inn"?

Daily WASHINGTON LETTER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—There is one senator here who will have almost no time at all to make any large marks on the pages of legislative history. He is never in the Senate before and after the present short three-month session is over he won't be there any more. This senator is Ben Williamson of Kentucky, known as "Uncle Ben" out home, who was elected for this session only.

Uncle Ben isn't perturbed by the fact that he only gets three months in office, whereas nearly all other senators have at least six years of it. In fact, it suits him better that way. One thing he never did was yearn for political office. He wasn't attracted by the prospect of serving those three months, either. Now that his friends have persuaded him and elected him and now that he's here, he will not seek to make his brief senatorial career as that of a meteor flashing across the sky.
He will just try to "go along" and be a good Democratic senator and do whatever little he can toward getting legislation that will afford relief made necessary by the depression.

He's Wealthy

Williamson has a certain charm about him which is lacking in the makeups of most of the politicians who break into Congress.
For many years his great hobby has been the aid of crippled children and the nearest approach he has ever made before to holding political office has been his service on the Kentucky Commission for Crippled Children, the State Board of Charity and Correction and the board of directors of the International Society for Crippled Children.

In Ashland he built up a large hardware business which does about $1,500,000 worth of business a year and through his efforts for children and other public activities he became very popular in his state. He had particularity in no more than local politics, but Kentucky Democrats followed that his popularity would balance and help the ticket, so they finally persuaded Uncle Ben that he could leave his hardware business long enough to go to Washington for the short term.
He is tall and thin, appearing almost cadaverous, but his most conspicuous feature is a kind and friendly smile which goes with a mild voice and a retiring disposition. He is 66 years old and dresses most conservatively.

For 44 years he has been selling light and heavy hardware. He is a Rotarian.

The drought strikes Senator Williamson as something in which Congress especially should interest itself. He has a happy belief that Congress will do something "adequate" about that.

"My whole state is involved," he explained. "Even water supplies have been very seriously affected. Watering is going to be more acute this winter. But I think Congress can be depended upon to supply prompt and adequate relief."

Search for Cripples

"Uncle Ben" is going to be happy if he can help do something for the crippled children this session. A bill designed to stimulate more work on their behalf may be introduced, in which case he will plug for it as hard as he knows, how. He enjoys telling about what his commission has done in Kentucky.

"The largest problem we have is finding the cripples," he explains.
"They're scattered here, there and yonder. But we have tried to get people interested in them, and everyone who knows of a crippled child is supposed to produce that child for our clinics. We send out field workers, always graduate nurses, through the territory which the traveling clinic will serve; to beat the bushes in advance. These workers undertake to locate the children through various local and county groups, trying in every way to make the community aware of the clinic and its possibilities. Then when the doctor and nurses come for the clinic we virtually com-mandeer people with automobiles to bring the afflicted children in."

The whole work, involving cooperation of the state agency with communities, is aided greatly by the pleasure anyone gets out of finding a crippled child and seeing him put on his feet. Our orthopedic surgeons put the children in hospitals or on waiting lists or do whatever they can and we have had a very gratifying percentage of cures and corrections. The Kentucky method is now pretty well known over the country."

Orellana Succeeds Depo- sed President Palma, Is Report

WASHINGTON—(A.P.)—The Guatemalan legation announced Wednesday night a military junta had been from-ed in the Central American republic and under the presidency of General Manuel Orellana was taking steps to restore Guatemala to constitutional government.

The statement followed reports from the American legation in Guatemala City there had been street fighting in that capital Tuesday. Later the Guatemalan legation received an official communication from the new provisional government confirming private advices received about the same time in New York that an armed revolt against President Bautista Palma had succeeded.

Guatemalan officials here explained that President Palma whose regime was formally recognized by the United States Tuesday, came into power as second presidential designate December 13. He was preceded in rank by General Mauro de Leon, minister of war and first presidential designate.
Officials said Palma assumed power when President Chacon was forced by a cerebral hemorrhage, to vacate.
Their advices said General de Leon was killed in the affray which put the military and liberal party into power.

Italian Squadron Is Upset By Wind

Half of Air Fleet Reaches Cartagena on First Lap Ocean Hop

CARTAGENA, Spain.—(A.P.)—Scattered by adverse winds and wear, a squadron of Italian seaplanes, which took off Wednesday morning from Orbetello, Italy, on the first lap of a projected flight to South America was in two sections Wednesday.

Eight of the ships came down here, while the other four, including that piloted by Air Minister Italo Balbo, descended at Iviza, an island off the Balearic group. General Balbo radioed word to Cartagena he and his comrades were safe.

Dispatches from Rome said two replacement planes which began the flight with the squadron of 12 also were at Iviza.

Pending lifting weather, General Balbo's group will join their companions here before resuming the flight, the next lap of which is to Kuntara, Morocco.

Squalls blew lustily here Wednesday night, and although it was announced the flight would be resumed Thursday morning, this is regarded as impossible unless the weather subsides.

Separated from their brother fliers in the 750-mile hop over the Mediterranean the crews of the eight other machines flew on to Alcazars airport here, where they were welcomed by air officers and dined while awaiting word of General Balbo and the other four ships.

parlaments of the Sunday school will participate.

Vincent Foster, a student in the Texas A. & M. will arrive Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Foster.

Miss Noelle Levins entertained most delightfully Thursday evening at her home in Washington, for the pleasure of her Hope friends. The rooms were bright and cheery with beautiful Christmas colors, and four tables were arranged for bridge with the Christmas motif stressed in the tulle and lace pads. The high score for the ladies went to Mrs. Charles Burgess, and for the men to Sid Bundy. Mr. and Mrs. Bently of New Orleans were other out-of-town guests. Following the game, the hostess served a most tempting salad plate with coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Whitehurst had as luncheon guest Friday Charles Burnett of St. Louis.

Mrs. Hayes McRae is spending a few days visiting with friends and relatives in Fordyce.

Mrs. Brenis McPherson and little daughter of Little Rock are guests of Mrs. McPherson's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Don Smith.

Misses Mary Lillian McRae and Mary Billingsly of the Lewisville Public School faculty will arrive Friday evening to spend the Christmas holidays visiting with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meehan will leave Monday for Louisville, Ky., to spend the Christmas holidays visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Fred Marshall of Texarkana will spend Saturday in the city.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison of the Senior High school faculty will leave Friday to spend the holiday vacation visiting with home folks.

Miss Martha Lee of the Senior High faculty will spend the Christmas vacation visiting with home folks in Malvern.

Moscow's Baby Communists Get Ready for a Nap

A nap is a nap and every baby must have one, whether the locale is modern America or red Russia—so here we have a group of Communist children from a day nursery in Moscow starting out for the outdoor after-luncheon sleep. The children are bundled up in sleeping bags, which is what gives them that walking-bag appearance.

Banking Department Is Overburdened With Work

Usual Lull in Business at This Season By Various State Departments Is Not Found in Office of the Banking Department

LITTLE ROCK, (P)—The usual lull in business transacted by the various departments immediately preceding the Christmas holidays will be found in the state banking department this year. On the contrary, the department is overburdened with work and there is slight prospect of a lull until well after the first of the year.

The troubles of the department, supervising the various financial institutions of the state began November 11, with the closing of the American Exchange Trust Company here, which precipitated a period of financial hysteria that swept the state causing the closing or suspension of nearly four business firms. The state banking department has been advised Friday that the Citizens Bank of Foreman had closed its doors for a five day period. The closing came, according to the report, for the purpose of reorganization. The Citizens Bank and the Bank of Foreman were recently merged.

LITTLE ROCK, (P)—The Clark County Bank at Gurdon notified the State Banking department Friday morning of its suspension for a five day period. On September 24, the date of the last bank call the surplus and capital of this bank was $33,000. Deposits on this date were $184,332.

James A. Clark of Arkadelphia was president of the bank and Irvin A. Blakely, cashier.

Mac Caddis was very proud of his ability as a golfer and he expected perfect service from his caddies. One day he missed a stroke and yelled at his caddie: "Confound you, boy, you made me miss that putt!"

"I didn't do nothin', sir," replied the frightened caddie.

"Yes, you did; it was all the fault of your hiccup."

"But I didn't hiccup, sir."

"I know you didn't. It's the first time you've missed since we started, and I allowed for it, you idiot!"—De Laval Monthly.

Five Sets of Twins in This Iowa Family

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kroger and their five sets of twins.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa.—Beat this, if you can—five sets of twins in one family and all brothers and sisters! Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kroger of Council Bluffs are the proud parents and in addition to the twins have four other children, making 14 in all. Kroger is a railroad carpenter and earns $175 a month, but Mrs. Kroger is a good housekeeper and a wise manager and thus makes both ends meet. Mrs. Kroger says she would welcome at least one more set of twins to round out the family.

Furrier Guilty on Kidnaping Charge

E. Lamparelli Convicted on Accusation of Another Italian

LITTLE ROCK, (P)—E. Lamparelli, proprietor of fur shops in Little Rock for many years, was found guilty of kidnaping another Italian, Jake Priola, by a jury in First Division Circuit Court Wednesday night. The verdict provided for the minimum punishment, three years in the penitentiary, but recommended suspension of the sentence.

Judge McGehee did not indicate whether he will follow the jurors' recommendation, and announced that he would wait until Thursday to fix a time within which a motion for a new trial may be filed. The jury began its deliberation shortly after 3:30 p. m. and recessed at 6 for dinner, returning at 7:30.

An hour before the verdict was read, Judge McGehee sent for the jury and delivered an additional instruction, urging that every possible effort be made to reach a decision so that it would not be necessary to repeat the trial, which opened Monday.

Indicted with Lamparelli but not yet tried, are Sa Pmasalaroque, dairyman, at whose home between the Skyway Hills highway and Remount road Priola said he was a prisoner from May 13 until May 16; John Occhipinti of New Orleans, and Joe LaRocca, who has not been located. A brother of Joe LaRocca, Erasmo LaRocca of New Orleans, was arrested May 16 when the others were taken into custody. All those involved in the case are Italians.

Nebraska Town Plans "Motor" Football Team

ALLIANCE, Neb.—(P)—Profiting by the experience of the past season, Alliance is planning what will be, if developed, the first "motor" football stadium in the country.

Proposal of the Motor Stadium was made by persons who had become discouraged at the practice of motorists driving their cars to position along the sidelines of the local gridiron, taking all the space for spectators. To correct this several Alliance sportsmen have suggested a motor stadium of several floors, facing one side of the playing field. The structure, as planned, would be roofless and would be provided with long runways which would enable cars to climb to the desired level. Once in place, the occupants of the car would have an unobstructed view of the field, would be protected from cold and wind and would be out of the way of the sideline fans.

County Agent to Conduct Survey

List of Seed Needed and Surplus Seed to Be Made

PARAGOULD, Ark.—(P)—A survey of Green county will be made by County Agent Ben A. Lincoln to determine the needs of seeds and surplus seed of farmers in the county. Farmers in the county who have seed they want tested can send samples to either the county agent or direct to the state analyst at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

"It is urged the seed be sent in early to avoid an over supply of work on the analysts in the spring months," Lincoln said.

Michigan Farmer Walks From Jail

State Supreme Court Orders Release of Alleged Scofflaw

LANSING, Mich.—(P)—An order by the state Supreme Court brought about release from jail of Frank Harrard, farmer, held at Cadillac more than a month because he failed to reveal the source of liquor which caused his arrest for drunkenness. Harrard was released under $500 bail when the Supreme Court granted a writ of certiorari providing for a review of the proceedings by which Recorder's Judge E. J. Millington ordered him confined in jail until he revealed the source of the liquor.

A. W. Penny, Muskegon attorney, retained by a group of Cadillac business men, had asked the court to issue the writ.

Nationalists Plan Chinese Factories

SHANGHAI, (P)—Nationalist China is making strenuous efforts to develop native industries, and the government has issued orders designed to give active co-operation. An order has been sent to the various Chinese ministries, commissions and provincial and municipal governments that all shipbuilding and ship repairing work must be done by Chinese docks and factories. Other orders have instructed government officials to wear China-made garments and otherwise to aid in assisting native enterprises.

Plan Home For Cats SLOUGH, (Buckinghamshire) Eng.—(P)—Establishment of a cat's home is the aim of a club of cat-owners here, which has a membership of 365.

Anyhow, He's Dead to Her

Last January Alex Kozeken, young San Francisco butcher, disappeared from home and left a note for his wife, Josie, saying that he was going to drown himself in San Francisco bay. Police found on the edge of the bay an elaborate cross, erected by Kozeken, shown at the right, and Mrs. Kozeken mourned her husband's death. The other day, however, Kozeken reappeared, saying that he had faked the suicide in order to test his wife's love. But Mrs. Kozeken (above) said the test was too great and refused to let him enter the house. Now he has gone away again.

Personal Mention

John P. Cox has been detained to his home on account of illness for the past few days.

Martin Van Pool and Wm. Ramsey returned Wednesday from a business trip to Minden, La.

W. H. Lindsey was a business visitor in Texarkana Thursday.

The Rev. J. T. Beville, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, is in town on business.

See Calli Wins

PARIS, (P)—Alain Gerbault, a Frenchman, has been elected captain of the boat, "The Calli," in the 1930-31 season. He is dreaming of sailing the boat around the world. From Marseilles, at the end of the season, he has telegraphed instructions to his boat builders at Havre to fit his "Firecrest" with a new mast, but so far has not made known his intentions. The "Firecrest" already carried him around the world, the only humbug on board the tiny vessel.

NOTICE!

All depositors of the Arkansas Bank & Trust Company are hereby invited to attend a meeting of the depositors to be held at the City Hall in Hope, Arkansas, on Tuesday, December 23, 1930, at 1:30 p. m. At this meeting plans will be considered and formulated for the best interest of the depositors. (Signed) U. A. Gentry and E. F. McFaddin.

Electric Time!

Introducing a new feature of the city electric service which permits the use of electric clocks in private homes, stores, or wherever there is a city line.

Along with the installation of our new switch-board at the generating plant we have bought a cycle-regulator. This puts out correct-time impulses on the regular 110-volt house lines, and any electric clock plugged into the city line will be kept automatically correct by the master Western Union clock at the power-house.

This makes Naval Observatory Time available to anyone in Hope having an electric clock.

There is no service charge of any kind.

All that is necessary is to own an inexpensive electric clock which can be plugged into any electric socket, in home or store or office building.

An Unpleasant Subject All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 25 cents per bottle from Ward & Son, Hope, and Crescent Drug Store of 223 South Main. Adv.
